Q1. What is the secret that Meena shares with Mridu in the backyard?

Ans: Meena shares the secret of the kitten they found in front of the house in the morning. They had kept it in the backyard behind a thick bush.

Q2. How does Ravi get milk for the kitten?

Ans: Ravi gets milk for the kitten cleverly from the kitchen by pretending that he is hungry. In order to prove that he indeed was hungry, he had to drink most of the milk. He would leave some milk in the tumbler and empty it in the coconut shell kept in the backyard.

Q3. Who does he say the kitten's ancestors are? Do you believe him?

Ans. Ravi says that the kitten's ancestor was the Pallava Lion, emblem of the Pallava dynasty.

No, I don't believe him.

Q4. Ravi has a lot to say about M.P. Poonai. This shows that

(i) he is merely trying to impress Mridu.

(ii) his knowledge of history is sound.

(iii) he has a rich imagination.

(iv) he is an intelligent child.

Which of these statements do you agree/disagree to?

Ans: I think that his knowledge of history is sound. Also, he has a rich imagination and he is an intelligent child.

Q5. What was the noise that startled Mridu and frightened Mahendran?

Ans: The noise that startled Mridu and frightened Mahendran was the 'kreeching' sound of Lalli's violin.

Q2. Had the beggar come to Rukku Manni's house for the first time? Give reasons for your answer.

Ans. No, the beggar had not come to Rukku Manni's house for the first time. In fact, he had been visiting Rukku Manni's house for the past one week. He himself admitted that he had survived the past week because of the generosity of the ladies of Rukku Manni's house.

Q3. "A sharp V-shaped line had formed between her eyebrows." What does it suggest to you about Rukku Manni's mood?

Ans. "A sharp V-shaped line had formed between her eyebrows." This suggests that Rukku Manni was quite angry at the impishness of the children.

Working with the Text. Pg. No. 29

Q 1. Complete the following sentences:

- i) Ravi compares Lalli's playing the violin to derailing of a train.
- ii) Trying to hide beneath the tray of chillies, Mahendran tipped a few chillies over himself. "Mi-a-aw!", he howled miserably.
- iii) The teacher played a few notes on his violin, and Lalli stumbled behind him on her violin, which looked quite helpless and unhappy in her hands.
- iv) The beggar said that the kind ladies of the household had helped him survive the last week.
- v) After the lesson was over, the music teacher asked Lalli if she had seen his chappals.

Q2. Describe the music teacher, as seen from the window.

Ans: The music teacher had a lean, bony personality. He was sitting with his back against the window of the room where he was teaching violin to Lalli. He was bald and had some oiled hair around his ears. He was wearing an old-fashioned tuft and had a gold chain around his neck.

He also wore a diamond ring in his hand. He was beating the floor with his thin, malnourished toe.

Q 3.i) What makes Mridu conclude that the beggar has no money to buy chappals?

Ans. When the beggar showed his feet to the children they could see blisters on them.

This made Mridu conclude that the beggar had no money to buy chappals.

ii) What does she suggest to show her concern?

Ans. She suggests that they give away a pair of chappals to the beggar.

Q 4. "Have you children..." she began, and then, seeing they were curiously quiet, went on more slowly, "seen anyone lurking around the verandah?"

i) What do you think Rukku Manni really wanted to ask?

ii) Why did she change her question?

Ans. She changed her question because, seeing the children so serious and quiet, she understood that the children definitely had something to do with the missing chappals.

iii) What did she think had happened?

Ans. She thought that the children would have purposely hidden the pair of chappals.

Q5. On getting Gopu Mama's chappals, the music teacher tried not to look too happy. Why?

Ans. The music teacher tried not to look happy because he wanted to pretend that his chappals were valuable to him. Although in reality, he liked the new chappals of Gopu Mama.

Q6. On getting a gift of chappals, the beggar vanished in a minute. Why was he in such a hurry to leave?

Ans. I think that the beggar wanted to leave as early as possible because he did not want to lose the gift of chappals. He needed the chappals badly as his feet were full of blisters.

Q7. Walking towards the kitchen with Mridu and Meena, Rukku Manni began to laugh. What made her laugh?

Ans: The thought about what she would say to Gopu Mama about the chappals when he would ask about them made her laugh. She wondered what his reaction would be when he gets to know that those chappals were given to the music master.

(Class – 7th)

Q7. Kari learnt the commands to sit and walk. What were the instructions for each command?

Ans: Kari learnt the commands to sit and walk. The word “Dhat” was used to make him sit. The word used to make him walk was “Mali”.

Q8. What is “the master call”? Why is it the most important signal for an elephant to learn?

Ans: The master call is a strange howling, hissing sound. It sounds as if a snake and a tiger were fighting each other. This noise has to be made in the air. When an elephant listens to the master call, he uproots the trees and makes a passage through the jungle to the house.

1. Application to editor of a newspaper on the issue of a particular road that needs repair.

Canal Avenue, Rawalpura,

12th Dec 2024.

The Editor

Srinagar Times,

Srinagar Kashmir,

Respected Sir,

With due reverence, I bring to the notice of the authorities concerned through your newspaper column, the awful condition of the roads of our city. Passengers travelling by sumo and cars get severe jolts and jumps. Some loaded trucks turtle in the middle of the roads. The traffic is often jammed causing much delay and inconvenience to the people.

It is high time that the authorities concerned should pay their immediate attention to the site and get the roads repair. The road should be coal tarred so that traffic might pass on smoothly.

I hope that you will consider my request.

Yours sincerely
